

Expanding and Expounding Greater — VALUE GIVING —

ONE THING we never lose sight of in this store--greater value giving. We're on the hunt for it every hour of every day and any man who can show us the way toward expanding our values without extending our prices, will always find a warm welcome here. To date, however, we've found no merchandise so filled with great value-giving possibilities as are--

Styleplus $17
Clothes

TRADE MARK REGISTERED

"The same price the world over."

THEY FIT THIS ORGANIZATION LIKE A GLOVE; STYLE, SERVICE, SATISFACTION, all these are there in generous and proper proportion.

AND IF YOU WOULD MEASURE THESE VALUES, if you would here these clothes expound their virtues, step in, try on a few of the new Fall models at $17 and if the mirror doesn't say "THAT'S YOURS" -WE LOSE.

EMERY SHIRTS---

New Fall Styles just in... $1.50 up

McDonald Shirts

Work Shirts.....	50c up
Flannel Shirts.....	$1.00 up
Dress Shirts.....	$1.00 up

STETSON HATS---

See the New ones, the new two-tone effect..... $3.00 and $4.00

Keiser's Neckwear

All the Latest Colorings and the Greatest Quality Silks ever..... 50c

PHONE
46

NORDHAUS' PHONE
46

THE - STORE - THAT - VALUES - BUILT

Deming Cottage Sanitorium

DR. JANET REID, Medical Director

RATES:

$15.00 to $20.00 Per Week

DOWNTOWN OFFICE: Baker Building, Spruce Street

SANITORIUM PHONE
394-R2

OFFICE PHONE
18

PERSONAL

J. Mand left the city Monday for Boston, Mass., where he will attend the Boston School of Technology.

Pat J. Moran, at one time post office inspector in this district, now a private citizen, having resigned from the service, is in the city visiting relatives and his numerous friends.

J. G. Weaver says that unless the very bad boys who robbed his watermelon patch come up and pay the damages he will have the law on 'em now pretty quick.

While in San Francisco Dr. M. J. Moran attended the sessions of the National Dental Congress, lasting from August 29 to September 10. It was the largest gathering of dentists ever held, and the exhibits and demonstrations far surpassed anything of the kind heretofore. The exhibit from England was particularly noticeable. Dr. Moran was appointed on the committee on education—the most important committee of the congress.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Grover left the city for Healdsburg, California, last Friday, called there by the death of Mrs. Grover's mother, Mrs. M. J. Bice. Fred and Ruth accompanied them.

Mrs. Anna Bostwick and daughter, who have been visiting the Grover family at Cooks Peak, returned to Atchison, Kansas, Monday evening. Miss Helen will continue her school course.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Van Dusen of New York City are visiting the home of W. S. Clark, the Santa Fe agent, after an extended trip covering Denver, Colorado Springs, Yellowstone National park, and the exposures. After concluding their visit here they will return home by way of New Orleans. Mr. Van Dusen was here three years ago and expressed surprise at the substantial growth of Deming. Mrs. Van Dusen is the mother of Mrs. Clark.

Miss Dora Edna Ross, who attended the Capitol Dome farmers' meeting Saturday afternoon and gave a cooking demonstration, stopped over in the city Monday on her way to Munday.

The Rev. S. D. Atkins, in charge of the Nazarene Mexican church in tents, spent a few days in Deming returning to his station in El Paso Monday.

A party of town people motored out to the Florida mountains Sunday and had an enjoyable trip. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Snodgrass, Mr. and Mrs. Love, and Mrs. E. M. Davis.

Reese Webster of Clifton, Ariz., returned to town Sunday to look after the repair of his car, which is still in the Park garage.

W. E. Davis, traffic inspector of the Santa Fe railroad, reached the city today on a tour of inspection.

H. R. Hunter returned to town today from a trip to Santa Rita

C. C. Carpenter of Anthony was in town Monday.

James A. French, state engineer, and Francis E. Lester of Las Cruces, were in the city the latter part of the week.

W. F. Jacohy came over to Deming Monday from Santa Rita, to meet his wife on her return from the coast.

James Carroll and George Grayson checked out of the Park garage Sunday, and took an auto trip to the Florida mountains, to inspect Mr. Carroll's mine there.

J. T. McDaniel of Douglas, Ariz., was in Deming Tuesday to secure a market for cattle here.

Mrs. Vida Kester and Mrs. W. H. Mosley, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Ramsey, left town Tuesday.

Miss A. Kennedy returned to Deming Tuesday morning.

C. J. Case who came here for his wife's health about a year ago, took Mrs. Case has shown no improvement h to El Paso Monday evening, a here.

The storm of Sunday paralyzed all the telephone and electric power-connections, but the two companies soon had the systems in good working order again.

Dance at Dwyer

A dance will be given on the river in the town hall at Dwyer tomorrow evening. A jolly good time is assured and everybody is invited.

H. ALLISON

J. A. Mahoney returned from a trip to the Pacific Coast Saturday.

Warren Clark returned from a trip to the expositions in California Saturday. He saw all that was permitted and some besides, as he reports.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bray and A. S. Hillis returned Saturday by motor from Magdalena, stopping at the Elephant Butte dam enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kelly departed Tuesday for California.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank De Laune left the city the latter part of last week for a visit to the California fairs.

Miss Martha Lindauer returned Monday from a few days' visit to El Paso.

B. S. Frettingham the field supervisor of the Curtis Publishing company, was in the city Monday.

P. P. Preendo, traveling representative of Klamber Wangenheim of Los Angeles was in the city Monday.

Jimmy Hines and Louis Randolph returned Sunday from a hunting trip near the Three C lakes, where they spent a day or two.

Miss Lou Hodges left the city Thursday for New York City where she will study at the Institute of Musical Art for the following year.

Read the Graphic

PORTER CASE AT LAS CRUCES IS ATTRACTING ATTENTION

The Porter case now on trial at Las Cruces on change of venue from Otero county, is attracting no little attention in this vicinity, where Mr. Porter, accused of killing Mr. Cornell at Tularosa, is well known and popular. Mr. Porter attended a few miles north of Deming for many years. The testimony for the prosecution is, for the most part altogether circumstantial; that for the defense showing the good and peaceable character of Jim Porter here and elsewhere. The case is being fought out by some of the best legal talent of New Mexico, and the result of the trial is awaited with much interest throughout the state. The case probably will go to the jury before these pages reach the mails.

B. L. McKinney, who lives south of town, recently purchased a number of pigs to consume the feed he has stored on his ranch, believing in the advantage to be secured in feeding. Mr. McKinney also purchased a couple of plows and is going to do deep plowing on his ranch this fall.

Mrs. Flora Jackson of Hurley, reached Deming Monday for a visit.

Bailey and Hollenback, of the Messe district, have just purchased six hundred head of hogs to add to the live stock they already have on their ranch in the Mimbre valley. They have one of the largest hog ranches in the valley, and they are in a position to know that hogs are profitable from past experience. They are using the "hog joy" oiling system, which eliminates disease, and they find the hogs do much better.

J. I. Case, who has a farm east of town, has sold a number of hogs this week for breeding purposes.

The New Mexico Implement company has just sold two pumping engines to Alwhite Lindauer, who is now drilling stock wells on his ranch north of town to supply water for his stock.

Earl Bowman, John Pragel, and Sam Blackham went on a hunting trip to Red Mountain Wednesday afternoon in Blackham's "Yellow Streak". They had a good time, and brought home as a trophy a huge rafter, which had twelve rattles and a button, and have placed it on exhibition at the Borderland garage.

M. N. Johnson, with his son Elbert, was in town Wednesday. They have just returned from a visit from Hurley and will leave immediately for San Angelo, Tex., where he will engage in the pecan business, which he believes will be quite profitable. He will gather, and ship pecans to the open market.

Mrs. Joe Stage returned Thursday from El Paso, and will remain in Deming for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Stauber passed through Deming Wednesday on their way to their home in Pinos Altos, having spent the summer in Los Angeles, Cal.

Chester Grace returned to his home in California Sunday.

PRINCESS THEATER

TONIGHT AND SATURDAY NIGHT

"A FOOL THERE WAS"

A William Fox Feature Photo-Play in Five Acts
Miss Theda Bara is the Star of the Show

Rear Section, 25c General Admission--front-half house, 15c Boxes, 35c

FRIDAY --- NEXT WEEK --- SATURDAY

"A Woman's Resurrection"

With BETTY NANSEN Leading
A FOX Feature Photoplay
Same Prices of Admission